Social Media Research Assistant

Full-time, based in London

CST is currently recruiting for a Social Media Research Assistant to support its social media research into antisemitism and extremism. The role would ideally suit someone with strong social media skills and a genuine interest in countering antisemitism and terrorism. The role primarily involves CST's immediate response and follow-up investigations to incidents reported to CST.

Duties include:

- Monitoring antisemitism and the terrorism threat to the Jewish community.
- Recording and disseminating research results in a timely and effective manner and
- Assist in developing new research strategies, looking for trends in social media behaviour and training and supporting research staff and volunteers in social media work.

The ideal candidate will have:

- Good communication skills.
- A large capacity to learn.
- The ability to deal with matters confidentially.
- Have excellent time management skills and work well under pressure with the ability to re-prioritise as needed.

The job offers a competitive salary plus staff benefits.

Applicants should send their CV together with a covering letter stating why they are suitable for the role to careers@cst.org.uk with the wording Social Media Research Assistant in the subject heading.
